

INFORMATION ABOUT UNIVERSIDAD LOYOLA ANDALUCÍA

The Universidad Loyola Andalucía is a Jesuit university located in southern Spain. Undergraduate and postgraduate programmes have been offered since academic year 2013-2014 in the areas of business, economics, law, communication, engineering, international relations, education and psychology. Some of these programs are taught in English. Engineering studies are of a high importance in this university, as our strategic partner, Abengoa, is a very important Andalusian company with around 25,000 employees all over the world in the area of renewable sources of energy and engineering.

There are two campuses: Córdoba and Sevilla.

The University's website is being translated now, but please see the following link to the 2015-2016 information package with useful information for you and your students: <https://www.uoyola.es/servicio-relaciones-internacionales/estudiantes-internacionales>

The University is especially interested in exploring collaboration agreements in the fields of:

- Psychology,
- Education
- International Relations,

where many courses are taught in English.
